

Intermediate Training Seminars

HLPA's Intermediate Level Training Seminars have been specifically designed to allow more time for in-depth discussion and debate than the regular general meetings can provide. Places are strictly limited and will be allocated to the first 20 practitioner members per seminar paying the fee of £35.00 in full in advance. HPLA seminars have been awarded 2 hours' CPD by the Law Society and the Bar Council.

Homeless Cases: Has the Duty Been Discharged?

Thursday 12 July 2012
6.00 - 8.00 pm

Seminar Leaders:
JAMIE BURTON and BEN CHATAWAY
Doughty Street Chambers

Venue:
Mary Ward Legal Centre
10 Great Turnstile Street
London WC1V 7JU

With the Government set later this year to bring into force the provisions of the Localism Act 2011 that enable housing authorities to choose to complete the main homelessness duty by making an offer of private rented sector accommodation, this seminar will be of particular interest to housing practitioners wanting:

- an overview of the current position;
- to find out what the future holds for their homeless clients once a duty is accepted;
- how future decisions discharging duty may be challenged.

Please allocate me one place at the above seminar. I enclose a cheque for the registration fee of £35.00.

Cheques should be made payable to "Housing Law Practitioners Association" and must accompany this form. Registration forms submitted without payments will not be accepted. Places will not be allocated to any person who is not a current paid-up member of the Association (either as an individual member or group member).
