

Intermediate Training Seminars

HLPA's Intermediate Level Training Seminars have been specifically designed to allow time for more in-depth discussion and debate between experienced specialists than the regular general meetings can provide. Places are strictly limited and will be allocated to the first 20 practitioner members per seminar paying the fee of £35.00 in full. Members should note that the seminar assumes a degree of familiarity with the subject area and would not be suitable for those seeking an introduction to the topic. HPLA seminars have been awarded 2 hours' CPD by the Law Society and the Bar Council.

An intermediate seminar that aims to demystify the law relating to HMOs and, in particular, to explain how failure to licence an HMO can be used as a defence in possession proceedings, before turning to the Tenancy Deposit Scheme and considering the circumstances in which tenants can recover damages for failure to protect their deposits properly.

Please allocate me one place at the above seminar. I enclose a cheque for the registration fee of £35.00.

Cheques should be made payable to "Housing Law Practitioners Association" and must accompany this form. Registration forms submitted without payments will not be accepted. Places will not be allocated to any person who is not a current paid-up member of the Association (either as an individual member or group member).
